DELTA Resources, Inc. Ranked on The Washington Post's Top Workplaces 2017

Washington, D.C. 6/15/2017: DELTA Resources, Inc. has been named a 2017 Top Workplace by The Washington Post for the fourth consecutive year!

The Top Workplaces are determined based solely on employee feedback. The employee survey is conducted by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm on organizational health and employee engagement. WorkplaceDynamics conducts regional Top Workplaces programs with over 45 major publishing partners across the United States. Over the past year, more than 6,000 organizations and 1 in every 88 employees in the U.S. have turned to WorkplaceDynamics to better understand what's on the minds of their employees.

As a four-time winner of this prestigious award, DELTA's CEO Maria Proestou is honored that DELTA's corporate culture and commitment is shared so strongly throughout the company, at each level. "Our dedication to our customers, community and employees are a common bond at DELTA. As an organization, we challenge ourselves to find innovative workplace programs that allow DELTA staff the freedom to bring fresh solutions to our customers. The personal autonomy granted by these programs allows each employee to thrive individually, while actively contributing in DELTA's success as a team!" said Proestou. The company takes feedback seriously, both internally and externally, as DELTA embraces continuous process improvement. DELTA participated in the awards celebration hosted by The Washington Post this evening.
